A letter from Fr. Gerry

Dear Friends,

It is almost seven, years (six years and eleven months to be exact) since coming here as your Pastor. I was received with love and kindness and felt from day one that I was accepted as one of you, one of the family! Thank you for your acceptance and trust. It is hard to put into words what it means to me to have created such a bond of friendship with each one of you. I will carry these memories wherever the Lord takes me.

During my time here we have, together, achieved a lot as a community of believers. It is your generosity, which keeps this Church moving forward. Thank you for all the sacrifices you made and are still making in order that Francis de Sales Church continues to be a shining star of our Catholic faith in Mathews.

And on a more personal level, you helped build St. Noah School in my home village. This is a lasting legacy, which you should always be proud of. As for me, no words to thank you enough, but know that, this school project, has created an unbreakable bond between me and you and my people at home. May God reward you for such loving hearts.

As a human being I know that I am not perfect, therefore, if during the course of my duties as your pastor, I have caused someone to feel hurt or ignored, misunderstood, or not respected, forgive me. I never intended to hurt anyone, I always sought to do what is good for this community, but we are all human!

And now as I leave to take up my new assignment as Pastor of Blessed Sacrament Catholic Church in Norfolk, I pray that you have a wonderful future. And may the Lord, through your efforts, and your characteristic of a loving community, attract more new members to this Church.

Thank you for allowing me to be your pastor and friend, I will always look back fondly to the time spent in this community with you. Yes, I came as your pastor now seven years later I leave as a friend! I will miss each one of you!

May God Bless you all.

June 25, 2023, The Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time (Year A)

Readings:

Jeremiah 20:10-13:	The Lord will rescue the beloved from their persecutors.
Psalms 69:	“Lord, in your great love, answer me.”
Romans 5:12-15:	By grace, the gracious gift of God’s Son, Jesus Christ, has saved us all from sin.
Matthew 10:26-33:	There is no fear when God’s love is received as a precious gift.

Father Gerry's Homily:

The Scripture readings for this Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time challenge us to put all trust in the Lord. We must preach the Gospel of Christ through our words and lives without fear. He knows everything that is going on in our life, He loves us, He will take care of all our needs.

The first reading tells us how the prophet Jeremiah trusted in the power of God while he faced opposition for his prophetic ministry. He was intimidated by attacks upon his character, but he was unafraid to speak out in the name of the Lord. This reading, from one of the sections of the Book of the Prophet Jeremiah referred to as the Confession of Jeremiah, relates how Jeremiah's enemies were looking for ways by which they could denounce him to the King, condemn him, even have him killed, because the King had confidence in Jeremiah. The people looked at him as one of the greatest prophets sent to them by God. But now, Jeremiah is tested. He decides to give witness to God although that meant persecution from the politically powerful men gathered around the King. He decides to fear God rather than be afraid of men.

Today's Gospel passage is taken from the end of Jesus' instruction to His disciples as He sends them forth to carry on His mission of preaching and healing. He asks them to live simple lives and to expect opposition and rejection. After having foretold future opposition and persecution, Jesus encourages His disciples to stand firm. Three times they are urged, "Fear no one!" "Do not fear!" "Do not be afraid!" Instead of shrinking from their task, they are to proclaim the Gospel boldly, because they will be protected just as Jeremiah was assured of God's protection. Hence, Jesus commands His disciples not to fear their persecutors. He presents before them the image of the sparrow to reinforce the disciples' trust and hope in God. The readings hint at the opposition we future Christians will encounter as we carry on the work of Jesus in the world, and they encourage us to persevere in doing the work of Jesus. They assure us that we will be successful, despite the opposition we encounter.

We need to be afraid of nothing and nobody because our life is in the hands of a loving God. Sometimes we are afraid that we will make a wrong decision. At other times, we are afraid of what others will think when we speak up for Jesus. We are afraid of what the future will bring to us, our children, our loved ones, and our friends in general. We are also afraid of growing old, of bad health. Every fear we have is grounded in the knowledge that we have something or someone to lose. I can lose my job, family, house, money, health and even life itself. We are afraid of being rejected by others, especially our friends. This fear of rejection leads some of us not to live according to our Christian values.

Because of fear we forget one thing, which is important: that whatever trouble or crisis we face at that moment, God understands it and is far more powerful than what we fear. Our Heavenly Father knows exactly what is happening. This is the good news: to know that God is always on our side; that our life is in the hands of a loving God!

These days, it takes tremendous courage to be a witness of Christ, to show our faith in God. The trials of Jeremiah in the first reading are very present in our time. And yet like Jeremiah we are called to be prophets, to be Apostles of God's truth, of the Gospel of Christ to the World without fear.

UPDATED MAY 9, 2023
FdS Parish Financial Report
(Through the end of April 2023)
Fiscal Year 2022-2023

Total Income:	$152,362	Total Offertory & Debt Reduction Budget:	$148,333
Total Expenses:	$159,281	Total Offertory & Debt Reduction Income:	$142,323
Income - Expenses:	-$6,919	Difference:	-$6,010

As we reached the end of April, our combined Total Offertory & Debt Reduction Income was $6,010 Less Than our planned budget. While there was a slight increase in regular offertory to date, our Mortgage Reduction Income was $6,685 Less Than our required budget. Subsequently, when you look at total income versus total expenses, we are in the Negative by $6,919. This continued deficit in income is very concerning since it forces us to continue to reach into our savings account to pay our bills so we can keep the Parish operational. We are respectfully requesting an increase in Parishioner offertory support. Thank you for your continued support of our Parish!

Please continue to contribute to our parish on a weekly or monthly basis. The following are ways to continue your financial support to Church of Francis de Sales:

1. When attending Sunday Mass, you can leave your Sunday Offertory in the tall basket on the table by the Baptismal Font.
2. You can bring your Sunday Offering [i.e., envelopes, check, cash] to the Parish Office [Monday & Tuesday 08:00am to 04:00pm and Friday 08:00am to 12:00 noon].
3. You can send cash or checks to the Parish Office for each week.
4. If you pay bills online, please consider making your weekly/monthly Offertory an online payment or set up automatic bill pay.

There are many opportunities available to support worthwhile causes, but please consider supporting our Parish first. Thank you for your continued financial stewardship.

Parish Finance Council questions may be directed to Leon Iveson at AIRLFTR@gmail.com or cell: (501) 749-2276.
